Survey Technician Intern

Reports to Survey Crew Chief

A. Overall Role

The Survey Technician Intern will be responsible for collecting manhole, storm sewer and sanitary sewer pipe, and topographic data, will assist with construction staking, mark points of measurement with elevation, station number or other identifying mark and measure distance between survey points. He/she may also assist with cutting and clearing brush and trees from lines of survey.

B. Requirements

The Survey Technician must be:

1. Fluent in English language.
2. Able to provide proof of his/her valid driver's license.
3. Able to work as part of a team with minimal supervision.
4. Able to lift up to 100 pounds multiple times a day.
5. Able to walk long distances—average 5 miles a day—on varied terrain.
6. Able to work outside for up to 50 hours a week, with possible Saturday hours.
7. Willing to use personal cell phone for project communication, Prein&Newhof will provide a stipend.
8. Able to provide steel-toed work boots; Prein&Newhof will provide other safety equipment.